C2L Care to Learn is a provider of learning and development programmes and support to the social care sector

Susannah Spencer

About us

Our purpose is to work in partnership with people to “Get social care right” – through providing excellent development support and learning

Our Mission

To take learning opportunities out to individuals and organisations, that are meaningful, creative and memorable

Reasons to commission C2L Care to Learn

We can offer a variety of learning courses, which are required to cover the statutory requirements of the sector, along with the specialist areas that the sector need to develop their skills and knowledge further in providing excellent services

What’s important to us, is that you get the right learning for your people and the most out of your learning journey with C2L Care to Learn, so regardless of whether you book a one off learning course or commission us to develop your whole organisation, as a minimum you will receive from us

- Mini learning needs assessment
- A course overview, outlining learning outcomes and supported QCF
- A reaction evaluation analysis
- Learners that have reflected on their learning experience and return to you, with this recorded
- Employees that have experienced learning that was meaningful, creative and memorable
- Access to person centred learning resources

Susannah Spencer leads the C2L Care to Learn Team

“I bring a proven track record of developing organisations, innovative and creative approaches to learning and development and a passion for improving older people’s quality of life. Before joining C2L, I was leading on the groundbreaking project, Dementia Care Mapping in Supported Living for the renowned Bradford Dementia Group, based within the University of Bradford

I have drawn on my wealth of knowledge and experience to create C2L, after spending many years myself commissioning in learning, I’m determined that we will provide an excellent service that is agreed in partnership with you, with a promise of continuity, flexibility and reliability

We always focus on a bespoke approach at C2L, we do not just run with an off the shelf learning programme, we always ensure your learning needs are met, so when you contact us, Carolyn, C2L Learning and Development Administrator will do a mini learning needs assessment with you

I’m confident that if your after, learning and development delivered by experienced learning facilitators, who are committed to supporting people to become more knowledgeable and competent, ensuring that they make a real difference – you wont be disappointed!
